

S	M	T	W	T	F	S
1 1970: National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration founded to help protect the environment, study climate and forecast the weather.	2 1970: National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration founded to help protect the environment, study climate and forecast the weather.	3	4	5	6	7
8 1871: The Great Chicago Fire, fueled by dry tinder from a severe drought and fanned by strong winds, kills 250 and destroys 17,000 buildings.	9	10	11	12 1978: Launch of TIROS-N, carrying instruments to measure cloud top and sea surface temperatures, atmospheric temperature, and water vapor.	13	14
15 1975: Launch of the first Geostationary Operational Environmental Satellite (GOES-1).	16	17	18	19	20	21
22	23	24	25	26	27	28
29 1917: Temperature in Soda Butte, Wyoming, dropped to -33°F, the coldest October temperature ever recorded in the U.S.	30 1993: San Antonio, Texas, sees snowflakes for the first time ever in October.	31

SCIJINKS.GOV

2

6

6

6

